A GUIDE TO THE TRANSCRIPT

GENERAL INFORMATION

ACCREDITATION

Capital University is accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and holds membership in the Association of American Colleges and the Ohio College Association.

In addition, various disciplines of the University are accredited by or hold memberships in the following: Accreditation Council for Business Schools Programs, American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education, American Association of Colleges of Nursing, American Chemical Society, Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business, Commission of Collegiate Nursing Education, Council on Social Work Education, National Association of Schools of Music, National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education, Ohio Board of Nursing and Ohio Department of Education.

COURSE NUMBERING SYSTEM

Prior to 1968

Capital used a 3-digit course numbering system with courses numbered in the 100s intended for freshmen, 200s for sophomores, 300s for juniors, and 400s for seniors. 1968-1976

A 2-digit number system was used. Undergraduate courses numbered 10-19 signified introductory level, 20-39 intermediate level, and 40-99, advanced-level courses.

1976-Present

The University instituted a 3-digit number system defined as follows:

- 001-099 courses representative of special or developmental programs;
- 100-299 courses serving as a basic introduction to a program of study – such courses normally taken by freshmen and sophomores;
- 300-499 courses usually requiring some previous exposure to the area of study – such courses normally taken by juniors and seniors;
- 500-599 courses can be either graduate or undergraduate;
- 600-899 courses offered by graduate programs and the Law School.
- All MBA 100 level courses are graduate prerequisite courses in the MBA program.

ADULT AND CONTINUING EDUCATION

Effective February 1, 1979, Capital University began providing a means by which students could pursue a baccalaureate degree via non-traditional techniques as encompassed in the adult program. As with our traditional programs of study, students pursuing their degrees through the adult program must satisfy all degree requirements as stated in the University Bulletin. Capital University's adult program provides the opportunity to integrate life experience into a learner-centered academic degree program.

SECURITY FEATURES

The face of this document prints in purple with a custom pantograph throughout the body. Attempts to alter this document will result in the following: a brown stain with the application of bleach, black specks with the application of solvent-based ink eradicators and "void" will appear if attempts are made to photocopy. This form also contains toner-grip, which prevents the laser toner image from being lifted off the paper with tape. The appearance of any of the above constitutes an altered or fraudulent copy. In addition, fluorescent fibers will appear as yellow green under black light on this document. The signature of the University registrar is white on a purple background and will distort or disappear when photocopied. The name of the institution appears in white type over the face of the entire transcript and disappears or distorts when photocopied.
